2022 IMPACT REVIEW

God is using you to influence Christian coaches across the world, impact organizations, and launch young leaders!

Here are a few examples of what God has been doing through your partnership this year.

Christian Coaches Across the World

God opened up several opportunities for me to encourage & equip the growing community of Christian coaches worldwide. Earlier this year, I was invited to teach a course for the Professional Christian Coaching Institute (PCCI) in which new coaches honed their skills with live clients in a practicum setting. In the fall, PCCI invited me to present a seminar for their virtual coaching summit, which included attendees from across the globe. PCCI also interviewed me for their weekly podcast, in which I shared how God led me to become a coach and how He's using my coaching journey to impact my entire life.

Organizations

Pastor Brian Sharpe, Northview Church

Each time I work with this Colorado pastor, we begin in prayer and then reflect on what God has been doing recently in his congregation. The pastor is always encouraged by the progress God has graciously brought, and this helps him creatively explore leadership issues he's currently facing. Over this past year, I've engaged with this pastor and his elder team regarding the church's values—the things that matter most to them. Their values clarity has resulted in a sense of ownership by each of the church's ministry leaders (e.g., worship team, women's ministry, etc.) and it's been encouraging to watch God build momentum in many areas.

Young Leaders

Each fall, you send me to work with young adults in a year-long discipleship program in Colorado. This year, I was privileged to invest in eight interns. Through our individual strengths coaching sessions, they gained new awareness of and appreciation for their amazing God-given design. By God's grace, our conversations are energizing and undergirding their walks with God and will help launch them into their next contributions in God's kingdom. One intern shared, "Thru strengths coaching with Dr. Frick, I realized I have a lot of potential. I need to trust God and myself with my talents, especially my abilities to bring people together."
